Free Orthodontic Consultation At The Cambridge Dental Hub

This is a visit to have a full discussion of your problem and expectations. We will let you know about the various options available.

If the patient decides they would like to proceed then they will be offered an appointment for an examination with the Specialist Orthodontist. The cost of an examination by the specialist orthodontist is £65.00. The patient will have a full examination and will be given a full written treatment plan. Then if X-rays are taken then there will be a charge; £25 for large ones, £9 for small ones.

As part of the consultation we would normally expect the patient to either have had a very recent full dental examination with their own dentist or if not then we will offer them a full examination with one of our senior dentists. The cost of a general examination with one of our dentists is £25.00.

Patients who are referred by their dentist with usually have their regular treatment and extractions etc at their own dental practice and we will send letters etc as required.
